TO MACADAMIZE HANOVER ROAD

State Senate Cedes to National Government Road out of Gettysburg. Foretell Construction of Highway to York County Town.

The State Senate on Tuesday passed the bill ceding to the National Government the Hanover road, better known as the Bonneauville road.

It is understood that the purpose in wanting this road is to extend the present macadamized portion from its terminus to the Cavalry Field, making a continuous stretch from Rock Creek to that portion of the battlefield.

The Bonneauville road is not on the plan of proposed good roads construction as provided for in the Sprout bill now before the State Legislature and optimistic persons see the possibility of the National Government extending the macadamized portion to Hanover in view of the historical interest centered in the York County town.

A number of avenues are proposed for the battlefield in the future but their location or when the work will be done has not been given out for publication.

INSTRUCTIVE AND ENTERTAINING

The lecture by Dr. G. D. Stabley

BAND GIVES A MASKED BALL

Several Hundred Gettysburg People
Enjoy Affair in Xavier Hall.
Numerous Odd Costumes. Good Sum Realized for Band.

The masquerade dance given on Tuesday evening in Xavier Hall was attended by two hundred persons many of whom were in fancy costume and a merry time was spent until midnight.

The affair opened with a grand march in which the costumes showed to special advantage. A pair of Irish minstrels gotten up as twins baffled all efforts at identification. A Red Cross nurse and the monster headed man direct from a dime museum took part in the procession. Fairies, soldiers, policemen, clowns and others joined the merry crowd in the march which soon swung into the first two step, and from then on until midnight waltzes and two steps alternated.

In addition to those in costume there were many not in fancy dress but the floor was open to all and every dance saw it well filled. The Citizens' Band played all evening, the floor was good and the dancing was greatly enjoyed.
Nearby towns contributed some to the number which also included many students. The gallery and seats contained many spectators.

Refreshments were sold and about $48.50 realized toward the support of the band.

The committee, John Raymond, Ernest Ohler and Huber Miller, express their thanks for the co-operation they received in making the dance a success.

and music be sure and see "The Arrival of Kitty" at Walter's Theatre, comedy which has been on the road

country, as it is a comedy that pleases the most fastidious. The comedy is clean while the music is tuneful and catchy. Hal Johnson will be seen as

STATE TRAIN AT LITTLESTOWN

State Good Roads Train Visits Lower End Town and Over Four Hundred Hear Practical Talks and View Machinery.

Over four hundred people attended the Good Roads Train demonstration at Littlestown on Tuesday afternoon.
The town turned out one of the best meetings the unique exhibit has had on its tour.

The train arrived at Littlestown at 3:45 in the afternoon, and from then until the time of leaving every minute of the time was occupied in talking and demonstrating the various phases in road building and improving.

There were 407 persons who visited the cars during the stay in Littlestown.
About seventy five of these were pupils from the public schools and they showed just as much interest in the subject as their elders. A fox chase held near the town during the afternoon, brought out a hundred or more farmers, who, it is believed, would not have been out otherwise. The train did not arrive until after the chase had begun, so that the crowd was ready and waiting by the time the train pulled into the station.

Col Woodward lectured from the gondola car upon which is loaded the various machinery, while Mr. Winslow and Mr. Haas kept the crowd interested in the lecturing cars. The complete list of slides was used in illustrating the talk.

Among those who attended the Littlestown meeting were the following: H. H. Basehoar, Andrew Halter,
W. A. Smith, K. D. King, Ephraim Boose, W. R. Schmucker, W. O. Wick-ey, C. D. Sell, J. C. Bollinger, Amos Palmer, J. A. Smith, H. W. Martin,
Frank L. Ely, D. G. Staley, S. S.
Mehring, E. C. Smith, G. A. Kohler,
W. F. Ebaugh, E. E. Hildebrand.

The "Good Roads Special" is sent out by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Pennsylvania State College,
the state highway department and the United States department of agriculture. It is made up of a lecture car, used for smaller towns and small groups of men a passenger coach, a combination car containing exhibits of models of the various types of roads used in the United States, roads-making machinery, photographs, illustrative of conditions in different sections of the country, and a large flat car. On the latter are a portable stone crusher, sieve and bin, road scraper, concrete roller, log drags, collapsible concrete forms, types of culverts, horse shovel and other devices of interest to road builders.

A great many people brighten their polished floors by wiping them, once or twice a month, with a cloth dipped in milk.

A better way is to use Ivory Soap and lukewarm water. Apply with a soft cloth. Use very little water. Wipe dry with another soft cloth. By following this method you clean your floors as well as brighten them.

and get prices before buying.

We have without question the largest stock in the county, and our prices must appeal at once to everyone. The only way we can convince you of this, is for you to go to other stores and learn prices, and then come and get our prices and compare.

The many customers we have sold to thus far this Spring is good evidence of all this.

Let us convince you, as we have convinced others, that our prices are from 10 to 15 per cent lower than you will get elsewhere, and we will leave it to you if the goods are not better.

Now is the time to place your orders, as you have a good big stock to select from.

Will hold the goods until you want them.

Pittsburg Millionaire Offers

FRICK MAY GET COSTLY REMBRANDT

Offers Half Million Dollars For "The Mill."

London, March 1.—It is reported here that H. C. Frick is the American who offered $500,000 for Lord Lansdowne's famous Rembrandt, "The Mill."

Lord Lansdowne has had several offers for this picture and P. A. B. Widener went up to $350,000, but without avail.

It is said Lord Lansdowne has offered the National Gallery the option of taking the picture at the price offered by Mr. Frick.

Sir Charles Holroyd, director of the National Gallery, said that the marquis had offered the nation the refusal of the work and promised $25,000 towards its purchase. Sir Charles, however, despaired of raising the sum necessary unless some millionaire was prepared to pay the bulk of the sum, as in the recent case of Holbein's "Duchess of Milan," when $250,000 was given by an anonymous contributor. It is said that an American collector has offered $500,000 for "The Mill."

A YOUNG WRECKER

Boy Says He Put Tie on Track For Revenge.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., March 1.—Arthur Millard, a sixteen-year-old boy living in Brockton, near here, was arrested by Detectives Cooley and Kupschin, of the Lehigh Valley railroad, on the charge of making an attempt to wreck a passenger train on Feb. 22 at a point near Monroeton.

Young Millard was taken before Justice Meredith, of Towanda, and admitted that he had tried to wreck the train and had placed a tie on the track along a high embankment. The locomotive had struck this and pushed it along for ninety feet before the tie was thrown from the track.

Millard had been thrown off a freight train on which he was stealing a ride, and in revenge tried to wreck the passenger train.

Diphtheria Closes Another Hospital.

Baltimore, March 1.—Fearing the spread of diphtheria in the hospital district of northeast Baltimore, managers of the Hebrew hospital, opposite the Johns Hopkins hospital, where the epidemic of diphtheria has caused the closing of the institution, closed their doors to new patients. No cases have as yet developed in the Hebrew institution, but the spread of the disease in the immediate vicinity led to the action.

ANARCHISTS RUSH HUNGARIAN COUNT

Philadelphia Police Frustrate Attack on Apponyi.

TWO LEADERS ARRESTED

Leader of Mob Shouting "Knock Him Down" Was Captured by Police After a Lively Struggle.

Philadelphia, March 1.—An attack by anarchists upon Count Apponyi, the Hungarian statesman and privy councillor to the king, was frustrated by the police in front of the Odd Fellows' Temple, after a reception given there to the count.

One of the men arrested, who gave the name of Nathan Weise, and who had led the crowd toward the count with shouts of "Strike, strike, knock him down!" was found to have his pockets filled with pamphlets of an anarchistic nature and was recognized as one of the men who had refused to remove their hats when the count entered the reception hall.

John Sellman, twenty-three years of age, made a determined effort to rescue Weise and was also placed under arrest.

Count Apponyi, accompanied by Emil Rodgers, who has been assigned by the Hungarian consul to act as a bodyguard, and Special Policeman Lazelle, who was ordered to remain near the count at all times, had stepped from the building and was making his way toward his automobile at the curb. Suddenly the crowd surged closely about the party, and Weise could be seen urging them on and shouting in the Hungarian language.

Policemen Fight Way Into Crowd.

Lazelle noticed Rodgers' agitated manner at the man's words, and asked for a translation. When told of the threatening words he left the Hungarian attaché to conduct the nobleman to the automobile, while he struggled toward Weise.

As he placed him under arrest the crowd turned their attention toward rescuing their apparent leader, and Sellman tried to strike Lazelle and tear the prisoner from his grasp. Just as he had almost succeeded, Policeman Watkins fought his way to the scene and placed Sellman under arrest.

By this time the count, smiling and unperturbed, had reached the automobile and calmly seated himself. He gazed curiously and calmly at the struggling men surging about the machine, until Rodgers ordered the chauffeur to drive on through the crowd.

Rodgers went to the city hall after the men had been locked up there and identified Weise as having been present during the early part of the reception and causing some disorder by refusing to remove his hat in the presence of Count Apponyi. Not wishing to cause a scene by forcibly ejecting the man after he refused to leave the building, he was permitted to remain, still wearing his hat.

60 HENS LAY 1039 EGGS IN FEBRUARY

Owner Wagered They Would Produce 1000.

Tarrytown, N. Y., March 1.—M. Johnson, S. J., a poultry fancier of Glenville, made a wager on Feb. 1 that his sixty hens would lay 1000 eggs during the month.

Up to Monday night he had collected 960 eggs, or an average of thirty-five a day. Great interest was taken in the contest, and all day neighbors called to get the latest reports. At 10 o'clock Tuesday morning it was announced that the thousandth egg had been laid, and Glenville shook with cheers.

But the hens wanted to make it a good victory, and at 5.30 o'clock, the hour the contest was declared closed, the last hen jumped off the nest, making the count 1039. Every hen had done her duty on the last day. "Who says hens can't come back?" said Johnson.

KILLS MOTHER, BGY AND SELF

Woman Driven Insane by Death of Her Sister.

GAVE POISON IN WATER

Driven Insane by Grief Over Death of Sister, Miss Jeanette Lewis Gave Parent and Nephew Cyanide—Police Suspect Suicide Pact.

Philadelphia, March 1. — Jeanette Lewis, twenty-five years old, placed cyanide of potassium in a glass of water and then induced her mother and her nephew, Edward Midlen, Jr., nine years old, to take a drink from it. Both died instantly. Then Miss Lewis drained the glass of the poisoned water.

The mother and the suicide occurred at the Lewis home, 57 West Phillena street, Germantown, in the heart of the fashionable suburban district.

The motive for the crime, the police say, was melancholia over the death of a sister, the mother of Edward Midlen, Jr., who died in the German hospital, following an operation for gall stones.

It is said the police have information that Mrs. Lewis entered into a suicide pact with her daughter. According to the report, when the boy rushed into the bathroom Sarah Polhamus, the maid, went to his assistance, the child still held the glass containing the poison in his hand. Miss Polhamus tried to take the glass from the boy, but his grandmother, who staggered after him, cried: "No, let him drink it! Let him drink it!"

It was also said that Mrs. Lewis tried to find the eight-months-old baby of Mrs. Midlen, with the intention of poisoning it, but she was unable to accomplish her purpose, because the infant was on the third floor in custody of his nurse.

Miss Lewis was devoted to her married sister, and during the latter's illness in the Germantown hospital she was daily at Mrs. Midlen's bedside. An operation was performed, and it was thought at first that Mrs. Midlen would survive. Monday she suffered a relapse and died.

When word was sent to the Midlen home Miss Lewis became almost frenzied in her grief. Her brother-in-law, himself struggling under the burden of his sorrow, sought in vain to soothe her. Miss Lewis refused to go to her room, and through the hours of the night until daylight she walked about the house wailing: "My sister is dead; she is dead!"

Telephones For Poison. After the sorrow stricken family had partaken of breakfast Miss Lewis went to the telephone and called the drug store of Dr. C. D. Lowe.

According to Dr. Lowe the young woman represented herself as Florence Snyder, the trained nurse in charge of the infant. She said that she wanted an ounce of cyanide of potassium and would send for it. When asked the reason she replied that she wanted the poison for medicinal purposes.

To dissolve the drug it would have been necessary to soak it in water for a long time or else pulverize it. It is believed that when Miss Lewis received the drug she must have gone into some room unobserved and there crushed the crystals into a powder. Undetected she then emptied the pulverized poison into a glass of water.

By some artifice she induced the nine-year-old boy, who was nicknamed "Peach," to take a sip of the drugged water. Then on another pretext she handed the glass to her mother and watched her take a drink of the lethal potion. When she saw that the powerful drug was having its effect upon her nephew and mother, she went to her own room. She lay down upon the bed and drained the glass of all but a few drops.

The first intimation of the grim tragedy was given to Sarah Polhamus. She was cleaning in the bathroom on the second floor when the little boy, gasping and apparently in agony, staggered into the room.

Grandmother and Boy Fall Dead. "Peach! Peach! What is the matter?" she cried. The boy was unable to make reply. As Sarah Polhamus advanced to help the child, his grandmother, suffering intensely and exhibiting the same symptoms as "Peach," followed him into the room. The domestic reached for a glass of water, but before she could place it to the child's lips he fell to the floor unconscious. The girl turned to Mrs. Lewis, but she, too, lay limp on the floor.

The domestic ran into the hall and shouted: "Miss Lewis, where are you? Your mother has fainted." There was no response, and the girl rushed into Miss Lewis' room, where she was found unconscious upon the bed and apparently dead.

Mr. Midlen was in the parlor on the first floor and Miss Snyder, the nurse, was on the third floor. Both hurried to the second floor in response to the cries of the terrified domestic.

Mr. Midlen, not realizing that the three were dead, rushed to the drug store and cried out to Dr. Lowe that three members of his family had fainted. He asked the druggist to return to the house with him. The two hurried back to the house, and Dr. Lowe, upon seeing the bodies, realized that they had been poisoned.

SIR MIRAM MAXIM.

Gives London Formula For Cooking Pork and Beans

SIR MIRAM MAXIM ON PORK

Englishman Tells Countrymen How to Cook It With Beans.

London, March 1.—Sir Hiram Maxim in a letter to the Daily Express admitting that fat pork is indigestible tells of a visit which he received from several English women who after trying the great American dish, pork and beans, asked where the pork was.

The combination they ate consisted of one pound of pork to two pounds of beans.

Sir Hiram says that when the pork in a raw state is finely minced and thoroughly mixed with the beans it apparently disappears in the process of baking. The pork then is as easily digested as a piece of lean steak and though very rich in everything the system requires, is easily assimilated.

SENATE REJECTS DIRECT ELECTION

Votes Down Resolution to Amend Constitution.

DEFEATED BY "LAME DUCKS"

Members Whose Terms Expire With This Congress Voted Against Popular Election of United States Senators.

Washington, March 1. — United States senators will not be elected by a direct vote of the people. The resolution to submit to the states an amendment to the constitution providing for a direct vote was defeated in the senate.

Nearly all of the senators whose terms expire with this congress, generally known as "lame ducks," voted against the resolution.

Fifty-four senators voted for the resolution and thirty-three voted against it. A two-thirds vote, or in this case fifty-eight, is required to pass a resolution for a constitutional amendment.

Following is the way the senators voted:

Yeas — Bailey, Beveridge, Borah, Bourne, Bradley, Briggs, Bristow, Brown, Burkett, Burton, Carter, Chamberlain, Clapp, Clark (Wyoming), Clarke (Arkansas), Culberson, Culom, Cummins, Curtis, Davis, Dixon, Dupont, Frye, Gable, Gore, Gronna, Guggenheim, Jones, LaFollette, McCumber, Martin, Nelson, Newlands, Nixon, Overman, Owen, Paynter, Perkins, Piles, Rayner, Shively, Simmons, Smith (Maryland), Smith (Michigan), Smith (South Carolina), Stephenson, Stone, Sutherland, Swanson, Saylor, Thornton, Warner, Watson, Young, Total, 54.

Nays — Bacon, Bankhead, Brandegee, Bulkeley, Burnham, Burrows, Cane, Depew, Dick, Dillingham, Fletcher, Flint, Foster, Gallinger, Hale, Heyburn, Johnston, Kean, Lodge, Lorimer, Money, Oliver, Page, Penrose, Percy, Richardson, Root, Scott, Smoot, Tallaferris, Tillman, Warren, Wetmore, Total, 33.

Senator Gallinger at first voted aye, but later said it was an inadvertence and asked to be recorded in the negative.

The absentees were Senators Aldrich, Crawford, Frazier and Terrell, of Georgia. It was announced that had they been present Frazier would have voted aye, Terrell nay. There was no announcement about Senator Aldrich.

Senator Crawford entering after the roll call was complete, said he had been delayed by a stalled street car and would have voted aye. This would have made the maximum vote possible for the resolution fifty-six.

When the resolution was declared lost there was no demonstration, but from the Democratic side on the floor there were several modulated calls of "Good! Good!" The Sutherland amendment had made the measure unpopular with some of the far southern senators.

Senator Borah, who has been in charge of the resolution, was gratified over the result.

"While," he said, "I would like very much to have had four more votes, yet I am gratified with the results. When it is demonstrated that the senate stands within four of two-thirds, it is certain that the real fight is over."

"The resolution will be again introduced at the next session of congress, regular or extraordinary, and urged unrelentingly. The friends of the measure may rest assured that the subject will not be permitted to be forgotten. The next congress, in my judgment, will pass favorably on the resolution."

GORE BRIBERY FAILS

House Finds No Evidence in Indian Land Cases.

Washington, March 1.—The house committee that investigated Senator Gore's charges of attempted bribery in connection with J. P. McMurray's Indian attorney contract in Oklahoma made its final report to the house.

The committee found no evidence to show McMurray was involved.

Rice's Appointment Confirmed.

Dover, Del., March 1.—The senate of Delaware confirmed by unanimous vote the governor's appointment of Herbert L. Rice, of Wilmington, to be associate justice of the supreme and state courts. The appointment was sent in Monday, when the governor withdrew the appointment of Philip Q. Churchman, whose name had been attacked and held up for nearly two months with a majority of the senate against him.

Miss Morgan Attends Court.

New York, March 1.—Miss Anne T. Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, sat through the session of the children's court in Brooklyn by the side of Judge Russell. Miss Morgan watched the proceedings closely, taking notes and frequently asking the judge questions. Miss Morgan refused to comment about her experiences.

THE FATNESS OF HEALTH

Samose Fills Out the Curves and Makes Thin People Fat

If you are thin, your health is not what it should be. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that should be attended to at once. You cannot be healthy and strong if you are thin.

Perfect health and good, solid, beautiful flesh can only come through the use of Samose, the remarkable flesh-forming food.

This makes the thin and scrawny, plump and robust. It mixes with the food so that all of the elements that make solid bone, firm muscle and good flesh are thoroughly assimilated and retained in the system.

Samose is not a drug or a stimulant. It is a scientific flesh-forming food that restores thin people to a normal condition of good healthy flesh.

These statements are confirmed by the People's Drug Stores offers to refund the money to anyone buying and using Samose who does not see fresh as promised. The risk is all theirs. The thin and scrawny can buy Samose at The People's Drug Store, with the knowledge that if it is not successful it will cost absolutely nothing.
